The Senwah Foundation is a nonprofit foundation dedicated to providing opportunities where women, children and young people are empowered to develop their full potential in an environment free of violence. We believe in advancing the education of exceptional students who have unmet financial needs, and that they will excel educationally when given the resources to develop their talents.

The Senwah Foundation is an operational foundation. The resources of the foundation are dedicated to the people of Liberia. It is not a grant making institution, and does not have its own source of funds. Our projects and programs are financed through diverse funding efforts.
